

BLOCKHEAD

FUNDRAISING IDEAS

“Give aways”

You can “give away” an event in your life. Here are some great examples:

- Ask friends to donate $25 for your 25th birthday.
- Ask for donations as part of wedding or baby shower gifts.
- Ask for $10 donations for your ten year wedding anniversary.

Use your talents

Have a unique ability or love to play? Use some of these examples to ask for donations as a ticket to the show or to play in the competition:

- A backyard concert for friends and family
- A talent show competition with friends
- A sports competition like a kickball tournament
- A bake sale or pie auction

Just for fun:

- Ride a bike or run to raise blocks
- A lemonade stand is fun for kids and still a great way to raise blocks
- Have a Garage Sale to raise blocks and declutter your home
- A car wash is a great way to raise blocks and enjoy a beautiful day
- Have a game night with a set “buy in” to play

For the guys

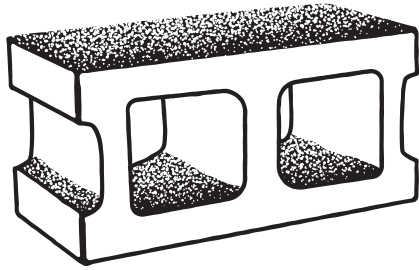

- Guys can do a “shave or save” fundraiser for their beard or hair.
If more donations come in to shave, then you shave your beard or more for save, then your manly mane is safe from harm.

Invite others to take the challenge on social media

Post to social media to let others know you want to be a BLOCKHEAD and tag people you want to challenge to do the same!

Have a BLOCK PARTY with your neighbors!

Be creative and have fun!

BLOCKHEAD

FUNDRAISING SHEET

OFFLINE DONATIONS

The back side of this sheet allows you to collect blocks and turn in the funds later. This is a great way to get friends and family to support you in becoming a BLOCKHEAD.

ONLINE DONATIONS

Online donations can be made at hope.childrensrelief.org/blockheadchallenge

Make sure your donor lists your name in the info field so you can get credit towards your campaign.

ONLINE FUNDRAISING PAGE (Think GoFund Me)

If you want to raise funds online, we have that option as well! You can register your own fundraising page at:

hope.childrensrelief.org/blockheadchallenge

Simply click on "BECOME A FUNDRAISER"

Once selected, a pop up will give you an option to raise funds as an individual, a team, or join an existing team.

Make your selection then fill in your info and start raising blocks to build homes!

Questions?

We are here to help. Contact Keith Green, keith@childrensrelief.org

